- Pre-entries can be submitted by Midnight on Monday the week of the show. Link on the RHAM website, miranchhorse.com

RHAM WEEKEND HIGH POINT SERIES:

- RHAM Weekend High Point Series awards will be awarded based on points earned in all ARHA classes in one Division: Open, Amateur, Novice Amateur, Youth, Novice Youth. Open Division are based on points for the horse only.

RHAM AWARD PROGRAM:

- Eligible Divisions: Open, Amateur, Novice Amateur, Youth, and Novice Youth
- Points are based on one horse/one rider combination in each division. Open Division are based on points for the horse only.
- Exhibitors may choose to show in as many classes and any combination of classes within each program. Not all classes are required for Year End Award eligibility.
- For each program, points for all eligible classes will be accumulated for each horse/rider combination from all 4 pointed RHAM shows to determine division placings.
- If a division does not contain an eligible class, the exhibitor is not required to 'show up' to accumulate points (ie. Novice Amateur exhibitor will not be required to show in an Amateur Working Ranch Horse class). Only classes available within the division that are eligible classes will be considered for point standings.

TOP PERFORMANCE HORSE

Points will accumulate in the following classes for each division:

- Ranchmanship, Ranch Showmanship, Ranch Reining, Horsemanship, Ranch Riding, Ranch Trail

RHAM LAMINATED BACK NUMBERS: Last Date to Reserve 2024 Back Numbers is May 12 (Last day of the May show).

Purchase laminated back numbers with horse and exhibitor names on them. For those showing multiple horses, this is a great way to help remember each horse's number and it also helps when pre-entering for the shows by having a pre-assigned number. You can select 2 or 3 back number tags; a third (3rd) back number tag eliminates the step of removing a number from your saddle pad to attach to the back of your show shirt for your conformation and/or showmanship classes. Back numbers are assigned to horses. Form available on website to purchase back numbers.
